FROM THE CENTER SEAT

This is the type of article I had hoped I would never have to write. When I formed the DaVinci nearly two years ago, the thoughts of my old ship, which I helped co-found, was on my mind. I assumed that the ease of running one ship would transfer to the other. I was wrong. For two years I have been trying to get DaVinci crew members to take more of the responsibility for and become more active in ship activities. For two years I have failed.

On several occasions, we had the opportunity to become involved in activities outside the ship but had to back out because of lack of interest by the crew. The best example is the Labor Day Telethon. I called to make arrangements for the DaVinci to

TOY TREK

Obviously, the biggest news over the next few months will be the First Contact line. Here are the CONFIRMED figures that are out now on the west coast and should be here on the east coast any day now. The entire TNG crew in new uniforms and the Borg (Worf will have a removable sash). The second wave of FC figures which will be released after the movie are: Dr. Lily Sloane, Zefram Cochrane, and Picard in Space Suit. These figures have a retail price of $7.25 each due to the fact that they are all 6 inches in height. Many collectors feared that the height change would be affecting the entire line of Trek figures, however, this is not true. The change will only affect FC figures. Figures dropped from this line include Data as full android (ahhhhhhhhhhhhh!), Lt. Hawk, and the Borg Queen, however, there is still the possibility they will be released after the movie is out.

Other Playmate items in the 9-inch area are: Picard in FC uniform, along with Data, Riker, Zefram Cochrane, and Picard in 21st century civilian attire. New ships to look forward to are the

FINANCIALLY SPEAKING

Due to an away mission by myself, leaving the CPT in charge of the finances, the state of the records upon my return, and the need to get the newsletter out in time, the financial report will not be out this month.
