FROM THE CENTER SEAT

The January meeting was filled with excitement. We had one of the best auctions in quite a while. The auction raised $70.00 (plus some IOUs) for the DaVinci coffers. Thanks to all who participated. Remember if you have some things you would like to donate please bring them to any DaVinci function.

For those of you who have not yet seen “Star Wars” do so! The added scenes, the enhanced visual effects, and the stereo sound all make for one wonderful experience! Twelve DaVinci crew members met at the theater. Eight of us sat 7 or so rows back and the others sat nearer the front. None were disappointed. All were still amazed as we left the theater. For me, it had been 20 very long years

Michelle Forbes broke her ankle tripping over her dogs. The injury will be written into her role on the "Homicide" series.

Guess who has filed for divorce? Kirstie Alley (The Pseudo Saavik) and Parker Stevenson.

Rosalind Chao (Keiko O'Brien) has recently completed a TV movie, "The Protected Wife", which will air soon.

Thanks to Dateline: Starfleet and the Chase Masterson Fan Club for the information.

easy as it was in the first half. Of course, this time they will not take the Maquis so lightly. Week one began with a bang! The Borg took four games to the Maquis' one!

The second week was a different story. Due in large part to the CPT's bad bowling (he was beaten in a game by LTJG Allcorn) the Borg was wiped out on Wolf 52 and 53. The Maquis fared no better but did manage to win one game.

Week three had the Borg meeting the Maquis for only the second time. This time, the results were far different! The Borg took three out of four games, sending the battered Maquis team back to the Badlands to regroup (no doubt planning their revenge).

If you are not doing anything on Friday evening come down to Peachbowl Lanes at 7 P.M. to cheer on your favorite team.
