FROM THE CENTER SEAT

If you were not at my house on the 4th of July for the Star Trek movie marathon, you missed a whole bunch of fun (not to mention Gagh)!

The fun began about 5 P.M. when the first hot dogs and hamburgers hit the grill. By 7 P.M. nearly 25 people had arrived. Special guests included the crew of the Klingon ship Muscogee Phenix, the newest ship in the KAG fleet. There was plenty of food to go around and all were eager to begin the marathon! Everyone except Patty who did not like Star Trek: The Motion Picture! Anyway, the first movie hit the VCR at 7:45 P.M. to a room full of excited crew personnel.

Breaks in between each film for food, drinks, or necessity runs were mandatory. The first to fall

The new fall lineups are out! The X Files starts syndication on August 19th on F/X. The episodes will be played uncut and in order, so get your VCRs ready! Sliders is sliding to the Sci-Fi Channel with 22 new episodes. Hopefully John Rhys-Davies will come back (fingers crossed) and they will ditch Maggie. Babylon 5 is moving to TNT with 22 new episodes and two TV movies. Also on TNT, Lois & Clark goes into syndication in September.

On Fox, The X Files will stay on Sunday nights at 9:00 P.M., and on Fridays Fox's new show The Visitor will be filling in the old Sliders spot at 8:00 P.M. followed by Millennium at 9:00. The Visitor is Fox's new sci-fi show about a WWII soldier, Adam McArthur, who disappears over the Bermuda Triangle in the 40s. He shows up again in modern Likely candidates include Lenore Karidian, Simon VanGelder, and Captain Garth of the Original Series; Norah Satie, Jev, or Tam Elbrun from the Next Generation; and-Aamin Marritza from Deep Space Nine; and Lon Suder from Voyager. There are more crazies to be sure so gather up all your “loose” change and bring it to the meeting!
