DaVINCI 2005 ELECTIONS!

So important is this news that it will take the normal spot of the Captain's article. At the May meeting we will be taking nominations for the position of Captain of the USS DaVinci. Yes, believe it or not, it has been 2 years and it is time to see who will be at the helm for the next 2 years. Note that this year we are not taking nominations for First Officer. In past years there were individuals nominated for both positions and this could have presented problems if both positions were won. So, this time around, the Captain-elect will be free to choose his or her own "Number One" as long as they meet the qualifications listed below.

Okay, as a reminder, there are a few qualifications that must be met in order for you to be Captain of any Starfleet chapter. First, you must be a member of Starfleet in good standing, that is, your membership must be up to date. Second, you must have taken both Officer's Training School (OTS) and Officer's Command College (OCC). Finally, you must have been a member of the DaVinci for at least the last 6 months. The only requirement for voting in the election is that you must have been a member of the DaVinci for at least 3 months prior to the election. For your benefit, those DaVinci crew personnel who qualify for the positions are:

RADM Freddy Heller
FCPT Joe Perry
CPT Connie Heller
CMDR Russell Ruhland
LTCMDR Tony Fleming
LTJG Stacy Harris
LTJG Stephanie Harris
LTJG Karen Pynenburg
LTJG Mike Walker
LTJG George Pimentel

The list is impressive and each individual would make a fine Captain; however, it is up to each of them if they wish to have their name place in nomination. While Mike Walker and George Pimentel would love to be Captain of the DaVinci, they are just a little ineligible because Mike lives in Kansas and George in Tennessee! In addition, Connie has already made it plain that she will not accept her name being placed into nomination for Captain. It is good to see that the list is nearly twice as long as it was in the last four elections! More of you are taking OTS and OCC than ever before and this is great news.

The election process will run like this: Once the nomination process has been completed, ballots will be mailed to each qualified member of the DaVinci no later than one week following the meeting. The ballots will have a self-addressed stamped envelope addressed to Gisela Stephens, the DaVinci's Communications Officer. The ballots must be mailed to Gisela no later than the Monday prior to the June meeting (May 30th). Each crewmember may only vote once. The ballots will be tabulated and the results announced during the June meeting and published in the July newsletter. If you do not receive a ballot, it is your responsibility to notify Gisela or myself so that we can mail you a duplicate ballot.

I cannot stress enough how important the process of election is to you. Remember, the DaVinci is YOUR ship and you are the ones who have a say in who sits in the "Center Seat" for the next 2 years. The process of the election begins with the nominations and if you only attend one meeting this year, this is the one to attend! We do not need a quorum, however, we do need a good showing, and so please do your best to attend this very important meeting. Thanks and see you then.

FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Wahoo! Did we ever have a great 9th anniversary party! Since our resident cook was not feeling 100% that day, we made the decision to go with pizza and chicken instead of burgers and dogs! I did not hear any complaints from those in attendance. Speaking of that, there were 20 DaVinci members and 7 members from other ships in the Region at the party! I would like to extend a very BIG Bajoran thanks to Mike Henigan and Kelly Hillard of the USS Pleiades (Douglasville, GA); Nancy O'Sheilds and Jan Sleigh of the USS New Hope (Montgomery, AL); Jeff Kirkland and his mom Martha of the USS Republic (Atlanta, GA); and Jonathan Cone of the Shuttle Dauntless (Orange Park, FL) for making the journey to join us in our celebration (Jonathan did not really drive from Florida. He lives in Albany but is a member of the Dauntless.)

There was plenty of food to go around. I was a bit concerned when half of the 10 pizzas were consumed in less than 1 hour. Not to worry, however, because there was so much other goodies (baked beans, macaroni and cheese, potato salad, macaroni salad, coleslaw, and various scrumptious desserts) that there was left over pizza at the end of the evening.

My overly generous "Number One" came through again and donated a box set of the extended versions of the Lord of the Rings Trilogy as a door prize! The good news is that Roger Wright did NOT win the drawing. The "bad" news is that his significant other, and newest member of the DaVinci, did win! Congratulations to Faye Cole! So, I suppose that in reality Roger did win after all.....sigh.

Well, after the food had been consumed, it was time to get down to some serious Great Dalmuti – the official game of the Region 2 and the DaVinci. About 7 folks sat down to what everyone assumed would be a closely fought contest. Well, that was far from the truth.. It seems a young Dalmuti upstart took the rest of the players to the cleaner's and back again! The margin of victory was such that the tournament was called early because there was no way for anyone to catch the leader. And so without further ado, congratulations to Travis Heller (that is my boy!) for being the Great Dalmuti at the DaVinci's 9th anniversary celebration! And, an equally hearty congratulation to Jonathan Cone for the honor of being the Lesser Peon! After a quick search of the premises, the appropriate covering was found to adorn the head of the Great Dalmuti and Lesser Peon. Flashes came from everywhere as the two posed for the cameras.

The DaVinci's version of Moogie's Store – the Captain's Table - was open for business during the party and it did the best it has ever done! Over $100 was raised for the Captain's new car – uh - I mean the DaVinci coffers. More new and exciting things (to include autographs) will be found on the Captain's Table in the months to come so be sure to bring your latinum to future gatherings.

The latest Penny Jar contest had its final run during the anniversary party and the results are quite surprising as well as disappointing to the Captain (who ever it was out to get me – yes, I know who you are – remember the old Klingon saying that "revenge is a dish best served cold" so watch your six!). The contest raised about $26 for the treasury, which is a little smaller than past contests but still a decent amount. Anyway, the results for the question "What is your favorite Trek show?" is as follows: In dead last place, the bottom of the well, the furthest point in the Galaxy, and pretty much trounced is – sigh – Deep Space Nine with a negative $5.82 (pennies $3.53; silver $9.35). The second least favorite show is the Next Generation with a negative $2.84 (pennies $.71; silver $3.55). Next in line was Enterprise at a negative $1.48 (pennies $.17; silver $1.65). That leaves the DaVinci's top two favorite shows! In second place comes Voyager with a negative $.75 (pennies $.15; silver $.90). Finally, the top banana, the number one show, the winner (only because of that dastardly fellow who shall remain nameless), is the Original Series with a very respectable positive $3.53 (pennies $4.33; silver $.80). Naturally, the Captain is questioning the results and another contest looms on the horizon. This one will be your favorite Captain!

If you were not at the anniversary party, check out the pictures below to see what you missed!

THE NEXT DAVINCI NIGHT OUT
WILL BE AT ZAXBY'S
ON MONDAY MAY 16th AT 7:00 PM
COME FOR THE GREAT FOOD!
COME FOR THE FRIENDSHIP!

Russell Ruhland and Randy Dunn help themselves to the food at the DaVinci's 9th Anniversary party.

Jonathan Cone and Joe Perry (front) and Faye Cole, Roger Wright, and Lech Mazur enjoy the pizza!

Joe Perry, Russell Ruhland, and Mike Henigan ponder the strategy during Great Dalmuti play.

Nancy O'Shields, Jan Sliagh, and Jonathan Cone playing The Great Dalmuti

Jonathan Cone and Travis Heller, are the Lesser Peon and Great Dalmuti respectively.

On Saturday the 2nd of April, the Space Science Center held Game and Hobby Expo III. As always, the DaVinci was invited to set up a table and lend a hand at the event. Due to the fact that the Space Science Center is no longer open on Sundays, the hours for the Expo were a little different. The doors opened open at 10:00 AM and closed at midnight! We did not stay that long but did manage to last until 6:00 PM. Although not as well attended as previous expos, we did manage to pick up 5 new members! Joining the DaVinci crew are Dutch Cummings and his wife Melanie and Susan Wood and her children Christopher and Jydasha. Welcome to the best ship in the Region! Not only is Dutch planning on joining Starfleet, he is giving strong thoughts on taking over as Engineering Officer! He is excited over the prospect and plans some interesting things with the Engineering department. Thanks to all the DaVinci folks who lent a hand – Russell, Joe, Randy, Todd, and Frazier.

Quite a few memberships in both the DaVinci and Starfleet have expired or are nearing expiration, so make sure you check your expiration date!

EXECUTIVELY SPEAKING

This month's general membership meeting at the Ronald McDonald House beamed in eight DaVinci members and one guest. We kept the usual sci-fi babble going for most of the meeting, as there was not much business to conduct other than reminding everyone about the upcoming Enterprise Mourning Party scheduled for Friday the 13th of May at Freddy's house (be sure to read the article following this one). Of course the finale of our monthly meeting became the Game Master of the Month competition. Joe Perry, the February winner, chose to play SPACE the game. I acted as announcer and after what we all thought was going to be the longest game ever (Joe shuffled the cards REAL good), we finally came up with our playoff contestants. We had four in the final round because of a tie for third place. Fourth place went to Randy Dunn who donated his prize (two boxes of sautéed baby hairless tribbles). Second place went to Skye Camern who received her very first Star Trek collectable in the form of a Original Series Shuttlepod from the new Johnny Lightening series. Finally, first place and Game Master of the Month for April was Frazier Smith who chose to receive a D7 Battle Cruiser collectable from the same ships series. Everyone had a good time and a few of us shuttled over to a local eating establishment for dinner after the meeting closed. Where was Freddy, you ask? Unfortunately working for Uncle Sam kindly took its toll and our Captain stayed home for some much needed rest.

Well, you all know how the DaVinci loves to get together for almost any reason, and we plan to do just that at my house on Friday, 29 April, beginning at 7:30 PM for the Star Trek Movie Marathon, Part II. Shown will be all of the TNG movies (Generations, First Contact, Insurrection, and Nemesis). So, bring your favorite junk food and see if you can stay awake that long! Now, I am not the best in the world at writing directions, but should you desire to attend, here it goes.

FROM downtown Columbus: 1. Take 13th Street from Columbus into Phenix City. 2. Proceed on 13th Street./Crawford Road thru the main 80/280 junction and turn RIGHT at the Signal on Auburn Road. 3. Go all the way until you reach nearly the end of Auburn Road and turn LEFT on Lee county Road 485. 4. My house is 1/10th mile on the right

FROM the North By-Pass: 1. Turn LEFT at the end of the By-Pass. 2. Turn RIGHT at the 1st light (Old Opelika Road). 3. Go about 2 miles and turn LEFT at the Chevron Gas Station (Stafford Road/Lee Road 240). 4. Turn LEFT at the BP Gas Station. 5. Turn RIGHT onto Lee Road 485. 6. My house is 1/10th mile on the right side of the road (114 Lee Road 485).

If you have any difficulties then call me at 298-3998 and I will get you there. I'm looking forward to seeing ya'll.

CMDR Russell Ruhland

ENTERPRISE SERIES FINALE

On Friday May 13th, the series finale of Enterprise will be broadcasted! Enterprise is ending before its time. If you have not been following the show, the past two seasons have been outstanding. Naturally, this calls for an Enterprise Mourning party. The series finale is a 2-hour blockbuster. It begins at 8:00 PM so come a few minutes early to lay claim on your favorite spot. Chips and various snacks as well as drinks will be provided, so make sure you have dinner before coming. Also bring your own pillow if you need one.

NIGHT OUT LOCATIONS

At the December Christmas party, the 2005 Night Out locations were selected. We had some familiar locations and some new spots as well. So without further ado, here are the 2005 locations. Bon appetite! Sorry no Hooter's again this year!

May	Zaxby's
June	CiCi's Pizza
July	Country's on Broad
August	Olive Garden
September	El Vaquero (Phenix City)
October	Deorio's
November	Lieutenant's
December	Jason's Deli

Congratulations to Sandy Holt the winner of the free dinner at the April Night Out!

DaVINCI T-SHIRTS & POLOS

Although they are selling like hotcakes, we still plenty of DaVinci shirts available for purchase. If you do not have one, get yours before your size is gone. The shirts run from $9.00 for S-XL and $11.00 for XX and up. See Freddy if you want a shirt.

FINALLY...

Many of you do not know when your membership in the DaVinci is due for renewal because most of the newsletters now go out via email. If you get your newsletter the old fashioned way, your expiration date is on the address label. Those going via email have no address label. So, to help those folks out, here are your expiration dates for the DaVinci and Starfleet:

	DaVinci	Starfleet

Top Forty-two Reasons Why Captain Kirk is Better Than Captain Picard

42. One Word: Hair.
41. Kirk can beat up a Klingon bare-handed.
40. Kirk would date Beverly Crusher -- and damn the consequences!!
39. Kirk never drinks tea. Ever.
38. Diplomacy for Kirk is a phaser and a smirk.
37. Kirk would never sing to children in a crisis.
36. Kirk can almost drive a stick shift.
35. Kirk made do with obviously low performance technology.
34. Kirk never pretends to be a barber in order to gain a tactical advantage.
33. Kirk never once stood up and had to straighten his shirt.
32. Kirk looks good with a ripped shirt.
31. Kirk's first officer NEVER tells him to stay on the bridge.
30. Kirk never leaves the room to bawl somebody out.
29. Kirk doesn't rely on the wisdom of some dumb old janitor to get him out of intergalactic scrapes.
28. Kirk never asks his bartender for advice.
27. Kirk never once said "Abandon ship! All hands abandon ship!"
26. Kirk never got "dumped" by a woman for an intergalactic busy body named after a letter of the alphabet.
25. If something doesn't speak English -- it's toast.
24. If Kirk finds a strange spinning probe, he blows it up.
23. Picard never met Joan Collins.
22. Picard hasn't fathered any children; Kirk -- probably millions.
21. Kirk has a cool Phaser -- not some pansy Braun mix-master.
20. Kirk knows how to deal with peace-loving hippy goofs.
19. Kirk once fought a Greek god. And won.
18. Kirk barely asks for suggestions. And if he does, he asks Spock only.
17. Kirk doesn't let the doctor tell him what to do.
16. One Word: Fisticuffs.
15. You can never lock up Kirk for very long.
14. Kirk plays god with lesser cultures, and then exploits them for resources.
13. Kirk's son would never drop out to become a musician.

12. Kirk can climb up a Jeffries Tube and fix anything.
11. Kirk never hired an engineer with punk glasses.
10. The Klingons didn't have a word for surrender -- until they met Kirk.
9. Kirk's bridge is not beige.
8. Picard allows cats on board, Kirk beams away even really cute things, like Tribbles.
7. Kirk specifically ordered a swivel LA-Z-BOY for the bridge.
6. Kirk would never touch SYNTHAHOL.
5. Kirk can infiltrate Gangsters, Nazis, and even the Pentagon easily.
4. When Kirk says "Boldly Go," he MEANS it.
3. Kirk traveled through The Great Barrier, met God, and wasn't even impressed.
2. Kirk would never let his Chief of Security wear a ponytail.
1. Three Words: Flying Leg Kick
