FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Sad news! Rusty Touchton, a friend of many and a long-time member of the USS DaVinci has died at 40 of an apparent heart attack.

coming to DaVinci events nearly a year ago for a variety of reasons. He was missed then and is missed now. Reminisce with me as we look back at Rusty Touchton, crew mate and friend.

Rusty and his "fro"
(21 Aug 99)

Rusty joined the DaVinci in June 1995 when we were just a fledgling Shuttle and I knew right away that Rusty was not your typical crewman. He could make you laugh one moment and then make you want to throttle him the next. But, that was Rusty. Rusty did not own a car and depended mostly on Randy Dunn for a lift to DaVinci events. It was very rare that Rusty did not walk in right behind Randy. When he did not walk in you could not help but ask where he was and how he was doing. Yes, you missed his presence. Rusty was a presence. He was a big man and his reddish beard and head of curly hair could not be missed. Rusty stopped

LAST LETTER TO A FRIEND

Yea, you and me Rusty go back a long time, about 20 years. I still remember Scott bringing you up with your motorcycle and big “fro”. We were not friends from the first but the more time we spent together, the more we found we had in common, music, TV, humor, sci-fi, and many other things.

Rusty and Randy

I remember a lot of the “inside” jokes at the times, someone would do or say something and we both would share a look and know the joke without saying a word and the other would finish the joke. You were hard for most people to take in large doses, but I did gladly for a lone time.

You were always there to help me with my problems with women or with life in general. We didn’t always agree on everything but most of the time we did. I remember us going to conventions together and it was you who influenced me to go to Walden Book store and join the DaVinci club. I remember very few times we were together when we didn’t just have a blast – we were very close, as close as two “straights” could be. We were not like brothers, we are brothers. I love you very much and I know you know this.

I tried to help you help yourself. I did all I could even though I know somehow I failed you because I was not there when you needed me most. You didn’t need to die alone, you deserved better and I, no one else, failed you. I will carry on for both of us and when someone says your name, I will smile, maybe laugh, but with a tear in my eye. I remember the good times and wish for more and I always will miss you, a brother, as I did and always will.

EXECUTIVELY SPEAKING

The rank is bright; it shines at night...clap, clap, clap, clap...deep in the heart of Starfleet! This maybe was the song sung by three of our shipmates at the Starfleet International Conference in San Antonio, TX over the July 4th weekend. Along with me, Joe Perry, Freddy and Connie Heller, and Frazier Smith also attended this star spangled event, representing the DaVinci quite well. It appears that the IC was well attended by all of fleet, with nearly 300 in attendance! We were honored with the presence of Vaughn Armstrong, Casey Biggs and Richard Herd of Star Trek fame and their "Enterprise Blues Band" performances. They recorded a CD and we had the privilege of being the first ones to receive copies for purchase. They were personally numbered and signed by the stars if one so desired.

Freddy, Frazier, Joe, and Russell at the Starfleet IC in San Antonio, TX. Connie had to leave early.

Joe Perry received promotion to Commodore, Connie Heller to Fleet Captain, and the undersigned to Captain. Congratulations to all!

One of the highlights of the IC was the recreated Enterprise bridge setting done with outstanding accuracy and for a fee donated to charity, one could get their picture taken on the bridge with the Star of their choice or all three as I understand everyone did anyway. The American Diabetes Association was our fleet designated charity and over $5000 was raised during the weekend. The Saturday banquet included a fine variety of Hispanic foods and the charity auction after dinner was hosted by the stars and offered the usual collection of "trek-lectibles" to the bidders. Of course, I came away from the auction with my share of goodies. Sunday brought the close of events and everyone said their good-byes and tear-filled cries until we all meet again in Philadelphia, PA next year.

OPERATIONS

In honor of the summer months (if I wanted heat, I would have stayed in Arizona), the crew of the USS DaVinci is hereby invited to a pool party at my house on 13 August. It will start at noon and finish whenever there is nobody left or I get too tired of looking at your faces. As usual, drinks will be provided; you might want to bring bathing attire and towels. Directions follow:

Coming South on Veterans Parkway turn right at Walgreens, then follow directions for Veterans North Coming North (South) on I-185 - exit at Airport Thruway (Exit 8) turn left (right) at off ramp travel 0.5 miles to Whitesville Road (4-way intersection with barrier on south side) travel up Whitesville 0.4 miles to intersection with Veterans Parkway. Follow directions for Veterans Parkway.

Coming West on US-80 (Freddy) Take US-80 West to Exit 4 (Veterans Parkway); travel straight thru the intersection at the off ramp (Double Churches Road). Travel about 1 mile, right after you see a liquor/ice store on the right, take a left onto Daisy Street. Travel south on Daisy Street 3 houses before a 4-way stop sign intersection. My house is on the left.

Coming East on US-80 (North Phenix City) take US-80 East to Exit 4, turn right and travel to the intersection with Double Churches Road follow directions for US-80 West.

Some of you will recognize the off ramps for US-80; this is our highway cleanup area.

Please note, those of you using US-80, when you return use the reverse of the directions opposite from how you came. Example US-80 West travels thru intersection coming to my house, when leaving they turn right and travel to the other set of ramps, US-80 East turns right to get to Double Churches Road, when returning they travel through the intersection.

Anybody needs further directions, contact me or we can talk at the meeting.

[Editor's Note: There will be pizza and a donation jar to help defray the cost of the drinks.]

FOURTH OF JULY PARTY

What can I say other than WOW, we had a great time at our annual Fourth of July cookout! Twenty-five DaVinci personnel and their guests feasted on the expertly prepared burgers and dogs by the DaVinci's resident chief, Connie Heller. Besides the burgers and dogs there were lots of chips and homemade dips, two different kinds of potato salad, enough coleslaw to prevent the Voyager from leaving orbit, Randy Dunn's famous and very popular macaroni and cheese, grilled squash and mushrooms, Barbara Paul's delicious deviled eggs, five different cakes and pies, and to top off the meal, two different kinds of ice cream. It was good to see Josh and Renee Ainsworth again as well as Mike Henigan and Kelly Hilliard from the USS Republic in Atlanta. In addition, DaVinci members Barbara and Bill Paul drove in from Warner Robins to enjoy the festivities.

The hungry crew digs in!

Following the meal, certificates were passed out and promotion ceremonies were held. What makes any chapter in Starfleet the success that it is, is its members. Great members make a ship and members who do not care can sink a ship. Fortunately, the DaVinci has the former, a crew second to none in Region 2 and second to none in Fleet! I wanted to recognize some of these individuals for their dedication and sometimes hard work on behalf of the DaVinci. So, it was with great pride that I awarded Commendations to the following personnel: Randy Dunn, Lech Mazur, Margaret McGillicuddy, Joe Perry, Lisa Neal, Karen Pynenburg, Russell Ruhland, Frazier Smith, Gisela Stephens, and Roger Wright. I also bestowed upon Randy Dunn the DaVinci Officer of the Year award. Randy, more than any other crew member, is responsible for getting folks to join the DaVinci. Most remain members and some have gone on to other ships in Fleet. There was one long overdue promotion as well. Frazier Smith was awarded his second gold pip making him a Lieutenant in Starfleet and a Captain in Starfleet Marines. Frazier then took center stage and presented a couple of Marine awards.

Randy holds his Officer of the Year certificate!

First he promoted Randy Dunn to the newly allowed rank of Warrant Officer First Class (WO1) in the Marines. He then presented to Connie Heller a Starfleet Marine t-shirt for all the work she does for the DaVinci (and I had a speech prepared).

After the promotions and awards wrapped up it was time for the door prizes. The winner of the grand prize, a framed autographed poster of Alice Krige, went to Gisela Stephens! Other prizes went to Todd Kes (12 inch Mugatu figure); Josh Ainsworth, Lisa Neal, and Frazier Smith (“Dragons” poster); and the special edition of First Contact (Vanessa Winfield). Russell Ruhland came through again and auctioned off a box that contained an unknown Trek-related object. The high bid of $30 was from Joe Perry. The box contained a home made bottle of Blood Wine (embossed with the Klingon symbol) from the Starfleet International Conference in San Antonio. Games followed the auction. Naturally, the Great Dalmuti was played and Travis Heller, the young upstart who put everyone to shame at the anniversary party, was there to defend his title. Little did the young champ know that Mike Henigan (who fell victim to Travis in March) was prepared and quite eager to put Travis in his place. He did just that. It was no contest. Mike cleaned everyone’s boots, leaving the ex-champ a bit shaken and looking forward to the next competition.

For the first time a friendly round of poker was organized. The six players were each given $100 in poker chips. The game was dealer’s choice and ranged from Texas hold ’em to draw poker. After several rounds it was apparent that experience ruled as three of the young players were quickly eliminated. The over-confident pups were no match for the cunning poker ability of your Captain. Soon, Mike Henigan also fell out of contention, leaving only myself and Faye Cole to battle it out for the title of DaVinci poker champ. In a critical moment, your Captain made a serious blunder by not noticing that he had a straight flush versus just a plain flush in his pile of seven cards (a wild card game). Faye had four of a kind and took the pot. Although the loss did not hurt your Captain financially, it did give Faye a boost in confidence. The final hand was for the whole ball of wax and it came down to the very last card! Faye’s five cards showed a high pair while your Captain’s four cards showed four clubs. With sweat pouring from his brow, he slowly turned over the final card! ARGGGGG! A heart! Faye screamed with joy as she raked in all of the chips, becoming the DaVinci’s poker champ.

“Look what I won”, says the DaVinci poker champ.

Congratulations Faye but just remember, “For over a thousand years Roman conquerors returning from the wars enjoyed the honor of a triumph, a tumultuous parade. ...The conqueror rode in a triumphal chariot, the day's prisoners walking in chains before him. ...A slave stood behind the conqueror holding a golden crown, and whispering in his ear, a warning, that 'all glory is fleeting'." (From the movie Patton, 20th Century Fox, 1970).

After his humiliating defeat at the hand of a poker rookie, your Captain helped Russell Ruhland with the crowning of DaVinci Game Master of the Year. One game of SPACE: The Game was played to have a fourth player eligible for the tournament. That honor went to Frazier's daughter Mandy. The three other winners from previous monthly tournaments were Lisa Neal, Joe Perry, and two-time champ Frazier Smith. The four contenders sat down and played three games of SPACE. The first person to win was the overall champ and Gamester of the Year. Two more rounds were played to determine the second through fourth place finishers. Joe won the first game and title of Gamester of the Year. Lisa came in second, Frazier came in third, and Mandy came in fourth. The prizes were selected by the winners from some brought by Russell. Joe selected the Star Wars Monopoly game, Lisa the Special Edition of Insurrection, Frazier a photograph of your Captain at the 2005 IC in a very unflattering pose. Naturally, I offered to autograph it for him which he eagerly accepted. Finally, Mandy was awarded some "better luck next time" medals.

The winners in the Gamester of the Year tournament! L-R: Lisa, Mandy, Frazier, and Joe.

The rest of the time was spent in friendly conversation as folks slowly said goodbye and went home. It was a great affair and if you could not attend or signed up to come and did not, you missed a great time. I cannot wait for the "Goodbye Summer, Hello Fall" party in September!

PASSAGES

John Fiedler, known to Star Trek fans as Hengist, the administrator of Argellius II who was actually possessed by an evil entity known as Redjac, in the Original Series episode "Wolf in the Fold" has died of cancer. He was 80.

John Fiedler as Hengist in "Wolf in the Fold"

Fiedler was perhaps better known as the voice of Piglet in Disney's "Winnie the Pooh" features. Fans of The Bob Newhart Show will remember him as Mr. Peterson, one of the TV psychologist's therapy patients. Fiedler was known for what he called the "milquetoast, nerd parts." He had a distinctive voice that singled him out from the crowd. Fiedler's movie credits include "12 Angry Men," "That Touch of Mink," and "True Grit." His numerous TV rolls include Gunsmoke, Bewitched, Fantasy Island and The Twilight Zone. Fiedler's death comes mere days after fellow "Winnie the Pooh" voice cast mate Paul Winchell's (Tigger) passing.

ACCOLADES

A BIG Bajoran thanks or congratulations go out to:

Joe Perry for his promotion to Commodore.

Russell Ruhland for his promotion to Captain.

Connie Heller for her promotion to Fleet Captain.

Vanessa Williams for receiving a grade of Distinction from Starfleet Academy for Officer's Training School (OTS). Way to go Vanessa!!

Roger Wright for his usual donation of tabs, stamps, and coupons.

Lisa Neal for her usual overly large donation of stamps.

Joe Perry for the exciting and large donation of books, videos, models, and other Trek related material!

DaVINCI T-SHIRTS & POLOS

Although they are selling like hotcakes, we still plenty of DaVinci shirts available for purchase. If you do not have one, get yours before your size is gone. The shirts run from $9.00 for S-XL and $11.00 for XX and up. See Freddy if you want a shirt.

During the Fourth of July cookout, several of you commented that you would like to get a DaVinci polo shirt. This may be a problem if the order is too small. So, if you want a new DaVinci polo shirt, send me the size you want and whether you want red (operations), blue (science), or yellow (engineering) trim on the DaVinci logo

FINALLY...

Many of you do not know when your membership in the DaVinci is due for renewal because most of the newsletters now go out via email. If you get your newsletter the old fashioned way, your expiration date is on the address label. Those going via email have no address label. So, to help those folks out, here are your expiration dates for the DaVinci and Starfleet:

THE USS DAVINCI IN PHOTOS

I thought y'all would enjoy a look down memory lane. Each month I will show a series of pictures from our very beginning up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made what the USS DaVinci is today. Enjoy! Reminisce.

THOUGHTS FROM THE CREW

“It is my understanding that Rusty was one of our original crew when the DaVinci was a shuttle. Although he did not remain with Starfleet and the DaVinci in recent years, he will be missed.”

- Russell Ruhland

“I always enjoyed talking with Rusty. He always was friendly and had something to say to make me smile.”
