IT'S THE CAPTAIN CALLING

Well, the month of May certainly turned out to be an exciting one for the USS DaVinci. We got off to a roaring start with our membership drive table at the Coca Cola Space Science Center on Saturday, 04 May for the Free Comic Book Day event. Joe and I manned the table while Jessie provided security at the Comic Book room and Randy took care of feeding the masses with a food vendor table on the patio. Several individuals stopped by and spoke with us and some showed a slight interest; however, we were not able to acquire any new members to the crew this time. A couple of folks had their picture taken with us and through his diligent efforts even though it rained all day long, Randy was able to secure a donation of $50.00 to the DaVinci from the food sales. The next event at the CCSSC will be held on Sunday, 04 August. More on that event as the date comes closer.

Randy cooking up lunch for the attendees and Russell, Jessie, and Joe at the DaVinci table.

The night out at Olive Garden on Monday, 20 May brought 21 hungry crewmembers and one guest along for the exquisite Italian cuisine provided by our hosts. I must give special thanks to our serving staff as they did a wonderful job of taking care of our needs at this dinner. Oh, by the way, this night out was a uniform event and the management staff at the Olive Garden was extremely excited by our presence at their restaurant and came to our table to speak to us for a short time to give her personal thanks for our dressing out for dinner. We ate bread sticks and salad and bread sticks and salad and bread sticks and, oh yes, soup too for some of our folks. We know it would take a bit of time before the main courses arrived so we had our free meal drawing and to her surprise, Diane won the free meal for this night out. Next came the Captain's perks and the winners were Cara who received a Nero glass and new member John Clark who won a Star Trek Micro Machines Ship set. There were several patrons at the restaurant who desired to get their picture taken with some of our uniformed crew. Our servers brought the main meals shortly thereafter and everyone enjoyed their dinners to the fullest. I wish to truly thank everyone who came to this uniformed event and helped to make it a great success. Freddy also managed to take home with him a whole bunch of tabs as Jeff and I added to this year's tally to the Ronald McDonald House. Sorry, can't tell you how many but I am sure we are getting closer to the one million tab mark with every donation.

Gloria, Richard, Whitney, and Eloise and Hal, Martha, and Jeff all wait to order their meals.

Susanne and her sister Renate and Freddy and newest member John also wait to order.

Freddy smooching on Connie and our wonderful servers Ashley, Jasmine, and Jordan!

Look what we won! Diane (free meal), Cara (Nero glass), and John (Micro Machine Set)

Three days later brought the annual ABCDE (Admiral's Birthday Celebration Dinner Extravaganza) get together at Red Robin. We cheerfully added Jeff Kirkland to make it an Admiral's trio dinner event as his birthday also falls in the month of May and he too holds an Admiral's rank. I ordered my usual onion tower which Jeff and I made short work of immediately after its arrival to our table. We had ten crew personnel participate in this annual event and I am gladly thankful for their attendance. The meals were fantastic and of course Freddy, Jeff, and I received our birthday burgers and an ice cream sundae for free. If any of you see Freddy sometime shortly in the future, just remind him, "It's a glass, Freddy!" He can fill you in on that little quip. [Editors note: Freddy has no idea as to what Russell is talking about so please do not ask him and it has nothing what so ever to do with his age.]

Lech and Freddy the "Guinness Brothers" and Joe and John the "Fungus Brothers"

The crew enjoying their meals and the birthday trio: Russell (59), Freddy (64), and Jeff (60)

I'll close this month with congratulations to one of our own, Rebecca Dunn, who graduated from Central High School in Phenix City, AL on the 24th of May. Check out the picture of the happy grad with her Dad, Randy.

CONGRATULATIONS
REBECCA!!
CLASS OF 2013

We wish Rebecca all the best in her future endeavors as she pursues a career in the field of nursing.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Greetings Officers and Crewmates!

Well, the only thing to report is our attempt to clean up our Adopt-A-Highway location. I say attempt because we did not have enough folks join Freddy, Randy, and myself on a beautiful Saturday morning. Heck, I even brought donuts for the participants.

Jessie thanks Randy for coming and Randy and Freddy with the goodies.

I was a bit disappointed especially after Freddy told me this happens way too often. Come on folks, show a little more gung ho attitude and come out for the next scheduled clean up (TBD). I might even have donuts again!

RONALD MCDONALD HOUSE LUNCHEON

On 04 May the Ronald McDonald House had their annual volunteer luncheon at the Double Tree Hotel. Freddy and Connie represented the DaVinci at this fun-filled event. It all began upon check-in when you were given a slip of paper with a word on it. Your task was to find the person in the room with a matching word and then find out something about that person. For instance, Connie had "Astaire" so naturally she was searching for the person who had "Rogers." One person actually had "Kirk" and was looking for "Spock." Each attendee was also given an envelope containing a few thank-you gifts (free fruit smoothie at McDonald's and a $10 gift card to Texas Roadhouse). Also on the table were packets of make-your-own Smoores. Jack Pezold, owner of 22 McDonald's in Columbus and surrounding communities, was at the luncheon and when he had discovered that the person who gave out the free smoothie coupons was a bit "stingy" also gave everyone a coupon good for a free Extra Value meal! The lunch consisted of a tuna salad sandwich on a Kaiser roll, macaroni salad, and some mixed fruit plus tea or coffee. Following lunch there was a guest speaker, Rubye Stafford who had us break into groups. The purpose of the groups was to dress in some provided props and attempt to get one of the group members to laugh. Connie got hers to laugh when she started to do the Mexican hat dance around a sombrero and Freddy, well you know Freddy, he got his to nearly die from laughter when he began stripping in front of him! Enjoy some of the photos from the luncheon!

STAR TREK INTO DARKNESS PREMIER

Navigator, set course for the year 2013; mark 05.17; destination: Carmike 15, Columbus, Georgia. Pilot, detach all moorings; speed Warp 10. Don't forget to take off the parking brake this time, pilot.

The USS DaVinci boldly journeyed to the local theater and set up a 3-table membership drive and display for the premiere weekend of Star Trek: Into Darkness. There were brochures, bookmarks, standard and magnetic business cards, posters, calendars, and fliers for the Coca Cola Space Science Center. We displayed Phasers, Tricorders, stamps, tabs, copies of the Communiqué', and the DaVinci Pilot. There were action figures of the movie characters, DaVinci mugs, t-shirts, a static picture display, and promotional ink pens available for all the patrons of the theater to look at and take home. All in all, the largest display and membership drive effort we have undertaken in my entire time as a member of this fine crew.

Our three-table membership drive set up at the Carmike 15 theater complex!

Ben Wright, the theater manager created his own cardboard Into Darkness displays consisting of the Enterprise and a bridge scene complete with Captain's chair set up for viewing and photographs which I naturally took full advantage of! Connie attended the event on Friday dressed in her Klingon finest and was indeed the hit of the photograph sessions, especially with the military personnel who came to see the movie.

Altogether, a total of 10 crewmembers came to assist on either Friday evening or Saturday or both. Our gracious host and theater manager, Ben, assigned Daniel, one of his employees, to be a liaison between us and the theater and Daniel chose to wear a captain's tunic from the movie, which certainly added to the drama of the event.

Freddy convinces Kenny Gray and his family to join the DaVinci and Carmike employee Daniel and Russell in their movie uniforms

Dutch chats with theater manager Ben Wright and the crew on Friday (is that Boba Fett?)

The Columbus Ledger-Enquirer placed a byline in the local newspaper for us and one individual came by to join the DaVinci just from seeing the article in the paper. My thanks to Sandra Okamoto for her assistance in getting us some press time before the event.

Friday evening went well and we stayed until after the 7:45PM 3D movie let out and WHAM, a barrage of folks getting out from both the 2D and 3D showings bombarded us. For the next 30 minutes everyone worked steadily on giving out information about our chapter and Starfleet and there were some folks, including one family of seven that just could not wait to join up with our gallant crew. If memory serves me correctly, the USS DaVinci signed on a total of 15 new members on Friday evening.

“Movie? What Movie? I just came to join the DaVinci” and Klingon revenge!

A few of us returned to the theater on Saturday morning to set up for the afternoon. While I spoke with folks, Randy was busily handing out freebies to everyone and Maria did quite well on selling a few t-shirts for us. This day went rather casually for us and we signed about five or six more new members to the crew. Maria, Randy and I stayed until the 2D & 3D movies let out around 7:15 PM and we finally packed up and departed for the closing of the event. Overall, 22 new members were added to our roster; the largest ever at any one membership drive event.

The crew waiting to see the 3-D version and Randy chatting with a potential new member

Randy at it again and Russell chats with theater manager Ben Wright

A very special thanks goes out to all of our members that came to help us and especially to our host, Ben Wright, during this fun-filled weekend activity. After 8 to 10 hours of work on each of the two days, I know I was one tired ship's Captain and slept extremely well on Saturday night.

STARFLEET 2013 IC

The 2013 International Conference (IC) will be in Dallas, TX and is getting closer by the minute. You still have plenty of time to register if you plan on attending. We found out last month that the IC staff has received word that Vaughn Armstrong who played Admiral Maxwell Forrest on Enterprise will be the special guest! The dates are August 01-04 so plan your attendance now. Go to ic2013.com for all the information you need.

TABULATIONS

Okay, seeing that I am a nice guy I will give you a little help! I have revealed the number of tabs in the starting balance column. There are a few major changes from last month. With two huge donations at the Oliver Garden Night Out from Jeff (who else) and Russell, the standings have changed a bit. Jeff has taken over first place and Russell with his donation has moved into fourth place. Also, Hal has moved ahead of Randy, Maria has moved ahead of Dutch and Randy, and new tabbers Calvin and Cara have tossed their hats into the ring. Again, the totals have been masked because the amount is to remain a mystery, as the first person to donate the one-millionth tab will win a super prize package from my collection of goodies. Also, we need to reach at least 55,000 tabs to hit the one million tab donated! We are still a long way from 55,000 and even more from our goal of 100,000 tabs, so keep saving those tabs and you could be the big winner! Current list follows:

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made the USS DaVinci what it is today. Enjoy! Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken. If I get a name wrong, please let me know! Here are some photos from our February 2006 Night Out at Steak and Shake.
