UPCOMING EVENTS

*07 July, 4th of July Cookout, Dutch and Melanie's, 12:00 PM

*16 July, DaVinci Night Out/Membership Meeting, Ruby Tuesday, 7:00 PM

THE INTERNATIONAL
STAR TREK FAN ASSOCIATION, INC.

FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Before I begin my article I need to stress that 17 memberships in the DaVinci expire in July as well as several Fleet memberships! Please look at the Memberships section later in the Pilot to see when your membership expires.

Well, June began with a trip to Fazoli's on their opening day! Eight DaVinci personnel met at Fazoli's to feast on a variety of great food from spaghetti to pizza to meatball sub appropriately called the DaVinci! The parking lot was pretty full when Connie and arrived but it was not too full on the inside and I was able to get a couple of back-to-back tables not really knowing how many folks would show up.

By the time everyone had arrived the place was really hopping with hungry Columbusites anxious to try out the menu. By the time we left, it was a madhouse with the line of cars waiting for parking or the drive-thru (yes, it has a drive-thru) going out the parking lot and lining the entire turning lane! The city was installing a traffic signal in front of Fazoli's/Academy Sports and there was a traffic officer directing folks wanting to get into and out of both the Fazoli's and Academy Sports parking lots.

If you have never eaten at a Fazoli's you are in for a treat. You get quite a bit of food for your money and of course unlimited breadsticks! As a bit of information if you join their on-line club you get a free dessert on your birthday and if you download their app you get free spaghetti! Check out the photos from all the excitement.

Waiting in line to order are Connie, Diane, Russell, and Joe and Diane and Connie sit together and far enough away from their spouses to talk about them.

Freddy got Sandra and Wilbert autographs at MegaCon and Sandra shows her favorite and Wilbert definitely shows his favorite!

Joe and Steve pose for a photo while Diane enjoys her pepperoni pizza!

Diane shows what you too can get free on your birthday – a warm fudge brownie with ice cream!

The DaVinci crew in front of Fazoli's during their 05 June grand opening!

Next up was our bi-monthly Pizza and a Movie at my house. The attendance was small but the comradeship and fun was high as ever. The nine of us feasted on three kinds of pizza (mushroom, ham, and pepperoni), barbecue meatballs, and for snacks peanuts and cheese balls! We watched the 1951 version of "The Day the Earth Stood Still." "Klaatu barada nikto" anyone? We had a great time. The next Pizza and a Movie Night will be in August with the showing of the 1970 classic "Colossus: The Forbin Project." If there is a particular movie you would like shown please let me know. Here are some photos from our 4th Pizza and a Movie night.

First to arrive was Wilbert who kept Connie company until Sandra and Joe dropped by.

Watching the movie are Joe, Russell, and Wilbert while a little closer to the TV was Sandra.

Steve and Joe watch intently as too does Todd.

Meanwhile in the kitchen Diane and Connie, not interested in the movie, discuss their respective spouses and the DaVinci crew at our 4th Pizza and a Movie Night!

Next up was our monthly Night Out/Membership meeting. We met at the 13th Street location of Red Lobster. The turn-out was not as big as some events, still 15 DaVinci personnel attended to feast on their favorite seafood and, of course, those yummy cheese biscuits! We had 2 servers, Abby and Becky, who did a pretty good job keeping everything coming – especially the helpings of the cheese biscuits. The food was pretty good with only a few complaints heard. When folks had pretty much finished their meals it was time for the monthly drawing for the free meal. Scott's mom, Gail, did the honor of drawing the lucky winner and the name she drew was Wilbert! Of course, since his mom, Sandra, paid for the meal so guess who got the $15.00?

Following the free meal drawing, I asked Joe to draw a name for the Captain's Perks give away. The winner this month was Dutch who took home a copy of the magazine Star Trek and a 50 Federation Credits bill! Congratulations to both winners at the June Night Out. A BIG Bajoran thanks to Steve C. who donated the magazine and to Russell who donated the Federation Credit. Both also donated some other goodies but they will be saved for a future DaVinci event. Randy and Scott also dropped off some tabs and Randy also donated some Box Tops for Education and cancelled stamps. Coupons were donated by Sandra and Steve C. Folks began calling it a night shortly thereafter. Okay, check out the photos from the June Night Out at Red Lobster.

Steve and Scott check out the menu and while Randy chats with Jeff, Martha and Sandye decide what to order.

Martha and Jeff and Sandye and Randy pose for a photo.

So too does Joe and Steve and Gail and Todd.

Not to forget posers Diane and Russell and Sandra and Wilbert.

And while Freddy and Dutch pose for a photo, one of our servers, Abby, takes Diane and Russell's food order.

While our other server, Becky takes Joe's order and a distraught Steve thinks "Humph! I should have gone first!", Wilbert shows off the winning ticket for the free meal drawing!

But, because she is pays the bill, the money goes to Sandra and Dutch shows off his winning items in the drawing for the Captain's Perks.

The crew of the DaVinci at Red Lobster during the June Night Out/Membership meeting!

Next month the Night Out/Membership meeting will be held at 7:00 PM on Monday, 16 July at Ruby Tuesday. Remember the location on Veteran's Parkway closed so go to the Peachtree Mall location. Hope to see you there!

The final event for June was a celebration of Dutch's 50th birthday. The crew got together at Lucky China Buffet on Manchester Express Way. We had a great turnout as 11 DaVinci personnel got together to wish Dutch a happy 50th birthday! Connie and I arrived early so that Dutch would not see the cake the assembled crew had bought for him. Once everyone had seated the hungry crew hit the buffet line. The conversations around the table varied from Trek to current television shows. Once everyone was just about finished I excused myself to go to the beverage area to retrieve the cake, place one large candle in it, and light it. Walking around the corner I began singing "Happy Birthday" and once I did the rest of the crew joined in as well as a few of the restaurant employees and some of the other patrons as well! Dutch was certainly surprised and a bit humbled. He blew out the single candle and began cutting the cake with a rather large knife I provided. After cutting the cake in half he was not quite sure how to proceed so Connie volunteered to cut the cake to the correct portions. There was a little cake left over which Dutch was more than happy to take home (had he not, I am sure Melanie would have given him a word or two). Folks began heading home after the cake and a little bit more good conversation. Plus, a storm was headed our way and folks wanted to get home before it hit (and boy, did it ever). Check out all the photos from the fun.

Hitting the buffet are Connie, Dutch, and Lisa and Scott and Sandra.

DID YOU KNOW THAT?

China owns all the pandas in the world and rents them out for $1 million a year.

Blood donors in Sweden get a thank-you text when their blood is used.

The national animal of Scotland is the unicorn.

While Joe, Diane, and Wilbert fill their plates, Connie tries to decide what she wants.

Finishing up at the buffet are Sandra and Lisa and enjoying the food are Dutch, Connie, and Joe.

Also enjoying their food are Steve and Lisa and Diane and Scott.

While Wilbert and Sandra enjoy their meal Freddy and Steve pose for a photo.

While Connie looks on Dutch opens his birthday card!

Dutch blows out the candle and then proceeds to cut the cake in half.

The DaVinci crew at Lucky China to celebrate Dutch's 50th birthday!

As a final thought, I wish to send out a BIG Bajoran thanks to all the folks who have donated manufacturer's food and non-food coupons over the last 23 years. It is through your selfless effort that I am very excited to announce that we have broken the one million dollar mark in donations to the various Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine installations around the world! Yes folks, that is $1,000,000 in gathering, clipping, sorting, counting, and mailing! Wahoo!

678th STARFLEET MARINES

Greetings Marines! As we enter the month of July, we are reminded, during the Fourth of July, of why this great nation of ours exists. We are reminded of the freedoms we hold so dear and the people who fought for us to have those rights. From the Minute Men of the American Revolution to our current service men and women who serve this mighty nation of ours. To me, this holiday is as big as Thanksgiving and Christmas, because without the men and women who fought for our freedom, we probably wouldn't have the freedoms to celebrate other holidays, attend the church of our choice or even have the freedom to speak against those who would like nothing more than to see this great nation brought to its knees. As a Marine, I would like all of you to take a moment during your celebrations to honor those who currently serve and those who have served or given their life in a stand to defend this nation. Thanks and have a great Fourth of July!

Until next time, Ooh-Rah!

PASSAGES

Georgann Johnson, the actress who played Vice Admiral Gromek in the Star Trek: The Next Generation second season episode "The Emissary" in 1989 has died. She was 91.

Johnson was born in Decorah, Iowa in 1926. She played Ellen Grant on Somerset, along with other Star Trek regulars Michael Nouri, Barry Jenner, George Coe, and Marc Alaimo. Georgann also acted on Another World, another 1970 show that featured future Star Trek actors. In 1980 she acted in Health with Alfre Woodard and in Looker with Barry Jenner. She acted with Brian Thompson and Ron Perlman in 1985 in Our Family Honor. Two years later, in 1987, she had a role in Blind Date with Armin Shimerman, George Coe, and John Larroquette. One year later, in 1988, she starred with John Glover in David.

2018 HALLMARK ORNAMENTS

As usual, Hallmark will be releasing some Star Trek ornaments for the 2018 holiday season. You will be able to purchase these ornaments during their ornament premier on 14-15 July. Unfortunately there are no more Hallmark stores in Columbus but there is one in Auburn Mall a short 40 miles away. I will be attending the premiere on Saturday and if you wish for me to pick you up any of the ornaments let me know. This year's ornaments are a nice combination of the old and new Trek and should be good sellers. In addition there will be whole bunch of Star Wars ornaments! Take a look.

Kirk and Sulu from the TOS episode “The Naked Time” and the TOS Tricorder ornaments.

The TOS USS Enterprise (metal) and the USS Discovery round out the 2018 Star Trek ornaments.

USS DAVINCI IN PICTURES

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made the USS DaVinci what it is today. Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken. If I get a name wrong, please let me know! Okay, here is Part II of our 11th annual participation in the 2007 Help-the-Hooch River clean up.
