FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Greetings all! On the last day of August I hosted our bi-monthly Pizza and a Movie Night where 9 hearty folks watched the original “Invasion of the Body Snatchers” and dined on three different kinds of pizza – double pepperoni, cheese, and ham. The movie was great and all had a good time. There was a few “complaints” because of the lack of pizza containing a certain fungus but I will attempt to make up for this indiscretion by making sure I have at least one for the next Pizza and a Movie Night. Speaking of which, the next one will be held on Thursday, 04 October at 6:30 PM. On tap will be the postponed 1970 classic “Colossus: The Forbin Project”. So, mark your calendars and let me know if you plan on attending.

The title from the start of the movie and Joe (“where’s the mushroom pizza?”) and Lisa dig in!

Also getting some pizza are Josh and Gregory.

Enjoying the pizza and the movie are Wilbert and Sandra.

The DaVinci crew at the 5th Pizza and a Movie Night!

The September Night Out/Membership meeting took place but with quite conflict. First, since Connie and I would be out of town on the 3rd Monday, I changed the date to the second Monday. Then I discovered just a few days before that the location – Zombie Pig BBQ – was not open on Mondays or Tuesday (not only that but they close at 2:30 PM!). So, I quickly looked up an alternate location – Big E's BBQ on the Manchester Expressway. So I sent out an email to the crew informing them of the change. A couple hours later I received an email from Hal saying that he thinks Big E's had permanently closed! Sigh! So I called their number and sure enough it was no longer in service. I quickly found a third site – Shane's Rib Shack - and sent out another email notifying the crew of yet another change. I like Shane's and was looking forward to the Night Out when – wham – another change came about. This one, however, did not affect the date or location but did have a bearing on my attending. I promised I would pick up a member of our church from the Atlanta airport and guess when her flight was due to arrive? Yep, Monday at 6:00 PM! When it rains it pours! I put together all the items I usually bring to the Night Out (tickets and the Captain's Perks give away items) and gave them to Joe on Monday morning (Joe and I meet every day for breakfast at 9:15 AM at the Bradley Park McDonald's. Feel free to join us anytime). Russell used my camera and took some great pictures. He also volunteered to write up an article for this issue of the Pilot. Anyway, all that trouble and Connie reminded me that we have two alternate locations listed! We could have met at Pho Viet or CiCi's pizza!

The big events for October will be our annual "Goodbye Summer, Hello Fall" cookout which will be held on Saturday, 06 October at my house beginning at 12:00 PM. The DaVinci will supply the burgers and hot dogs but the rest of the covered dishes will come from those in attendance. There is always plenty of good food and all have a fun time. Our Goodbye Summer, Hello Fall cookout is normally held closer to the Fall Equinox but my schedule called for a change in the date. Anyway, I will be sending out notifications so mark your calendars, watch your email, and let me know if you can make it. Hope to see you soon.

One more thing! This is a last minute addition and you need to read the box at the end of the newsletter. It concerns the Help-the-Hooch River clean-up on 13 October.

Until the next time - engage!

ADM Freddy Heller
Commanding Officer

RECORDS ROOM REPORTING

The Night Out/Membership meeting for September brought with it 14 members of the DaVinci crew as we met at Shane's Rib Shack. The usual folks showed up and it was nice to see Leiko and her father Charles in attendance.

Our illustrious Captain, Freddy, was not able to be present as he was on a special away-mission and so yours truly sort of kept up with things. Freddy made sure he gave all the items needed for the Night Out to Joe, our XO. Joe brought the tickets needed for the free meal drawing and a couple of Captain's Perks items to give away.

The menu at Shane's Rib Shack provided us with many items of mouth watering pleasure from BBQ to ribs to chicken and salads as well. Diane ordered the grilled chicken salad and I decided to try BBQ chicken plate (shredded). Others ordered from a variety of items so we all had the menu pretty well covered. I didn't hear any complaints from anyone so all must have really enjoyed their meals. The service was excellent and our server was wonderful in keeping up with every one's needs.

After I made a few announcements about upcoming Trek-related events, we drew for the free meal which was won by none other than my charming wife, Diane. Following this, the Captain's Perks were drawn for and Todd won a Star Trek Beyond plastic drinking cup and Scott won two tickets to the Coca-Cola Space Science Center. Congratulations to all the winners. Check out the photos below for all the fun.

The DaVinci crew waits to order and Scott and Jeff wait their turn.

Martha and Diane check out the menu.

Joe checks out the tickets while Scott decides what to order and Gregory enjoys his food while Todd waits for his to arrive.

Steve looks on as Dutch mumbles “Dang plastic wrapping” and “whew, too much work.”

Steve and Dutch finally dig in as too does the rest of the hungry crew!

Look what we won! Diane (free meal), Todd (Star Trek Beyond movie cup), and Scott (Space Science Center tickets)

The DaVinci crew at Shane's Rib Shack for the September Night Out/Membership Meeting!

All in all a very good choice for the Night Out which had been chosen due to the fact that our original location (Zombie Pig BBQ) was closed on Mondays and the alternate choice (Big E's BBQ) was just plain closed! Everyone had a great time (see what y'all are missing?) and I am sure that Shane's Rib Shack will be seeing us again sometime in the future.

The next Night Out/Membership meeting will be held at the Hooter's. I am sure we will have a good turn-out for this one (this means you, Josh!). I hope to see there!

678th STARFLEET MARINES

Greetings Marines!

A lot of you have been asking me about uniforms and where patches and insignias are placed on the uniforms. As you know, the monster blacks we chose as the dress uniform for our unit are the black and white versions of the “Star Trek II: Wrath of Khan” dress uniforms. As you all know also we wear the solid black fatigues as a common work uniform with our new unit t-shirts underneath the jacket. You can find information on these uniforms by going to <http://www.sfi-sfmc.org/> and clicking on “library” and then “uniforms”. You can also get a more detailed description of the uniforms and placement of the patches and insignias by going to the Marine Force Manual on page 36 and reading “Section 7”. Section 7 goes into detail about where patches and insignias are placed on each uniform. Section 7.3 through 7.3.13 are also a good read as they go into detail about such things as awards, head gear and additional accoutrements. Every marine should read and know this basic manual inside and out as it is basic knowledge for everything in the Starfleet Marine Corps.

Now that we have our unit T shirts, I will be at the next Night Out, which will be at my favorite spot, Hooters, and would like everyone to be there to discuss some things we can do as a unit to do some community service. I would also like to go over MURP and get us started on this. I would like you all to look at <http://sfmca.sfi-sfmc.org/murp/> and brief yourselves on MURP and bring any questions you may have. Not many units have MURP under their belts and so having this would give us some bragging rights throughout the Corps. Remember also to wear your unit T shirt.

One more thing I would like to do is give a big Ooh Rah to Freddy for winning our ship the Electronic Newsletter of the Year Award. If you’re like me, I look forward to getting the Pilot every month. It is always packed with information and I love reading everyone’s submissions, seeing the pictures and reading about the activities our ship is involved in. Over the past twenty years I have seen the newsletter grow from just a couple of pages to the monstrosity it is now. Freddy has always done a good job with the newsletter and the format which makes it one of the best newsletters in the Fleet. Thank, Freddy, for all the time you put into it and showing support for our ship. Ooh Rah! From the Marines of the 678th MSG!

That’s all I have for this month. Hope to see you all at this month’s night out at Hooters and until then.

Until next time - Ooh Rah!

DIGGIN' FOR THE TRUTH

Bill and I attended the 2017/2018 Gunnery Challenge in Talladega, AL and I thought you might like to know what a competition is all about.

The CMP Park hosted the event and when we arrived this is where we went to register.

From here we headed to the range. When we arrived we met Shane Coley, the Team Captain for Team Glock.

There are three stages of competition. The first one is called 5-to-Glock. You have five cardboard targets set at various distances (farthest is 25 yds.) and you have to “Double Tap” each or shoot each one two times. Your score is recorded, and you move on to the next stage which is called Glock-M (seen here - Bill).

NOTE: The yellow/orange cone is your safe spot where you aim your weapon till given the signal to fire.

Here, your fifth target is replaced by a metal one (see middle target). You still double tap the cardboard targets but now, you only shoot the metal target once. See shot placement in the middle lower right of the white metal target (shooter – Barb).

Once your finished with this stage and your score is recorded you move on to the third and final stage, the Glock-Plates. These may look simple but by now you're getting pretty tired, and it's getting late and it's said that once you hear that beeper go off in your ear, those plates tend to shrink by half. That's what they say.

The plates are only at a distance of 11 yards but you'd be surprised at how many folks miss them. You shoot four magazines with ten rounds (bullets) in each. Your score is tallied up and you're finally done competing. It's time to pack it in and head for home.

I'd like to make a note that this was the last time that Bill and I saw "The Gunny" (R. Lee Ermey) alive. We heard he passed away this year. In this shot the Gunny and I went toe-to-toe with him being a Marine and me being Navy. After a few minutes of exchanging fire we both started laughing and gave each other a big hug. We had the honor and privilege of knowing him over the past several years and will miss him tremendously. He was an awesome man and patriot. He was the spokesman for Glock and for those not knowing him he played the Drill Sgt. In “Full Metal Jacket”. As we say in the GSSF competition world, “GLOCK-ON GUNNY”.HooRah!

This year found Bill and I once again at the Annual Gunny Challenge in Talladega Alabama, but this year we stepped up the game a notch and qualified as Range Officers.

One of the top safety rules you must follow at all times while on a “Hot” range is to always wear eye and ear protection. Note I have my eyes and EARS on.

By the end of the weekend you’re looking at two very hot, tired but happy folks. We learned a lot more about the world of competition shooting from the other side by being Range Officers. It was our job to maintain order on the range as well as making it a safe and fun experience for those competing. Oh, and I guess I should mention here that Bill won a gun in a drawing on Sunday when we closed, up. All the “RO’s” headed to the main Lodge for a final get together and the GSSF folks gave away five guns. Bill was one of the five to win one. So, if you’re interested in wanting to see what this stuff is all about you can check out things by going to <http://gssfonline.com/>. It’s a lot of fun and you get to meet some pretty cool folks. Hope to see you at next year’s meet.

ADM Barbara Paul

NEWS YOU CAN USE!

The new rates for membership in Starfleet are in place and are a pretty good deal. NOTE: There are no more paper memberships available. All memberships are electronic (via email). If you are thinking of joining Fleet but the expense was too high now you can get your membership for much less money. Not only will you save money there, but your membership in the DaVinci is half off as well (up to a $7.50 savings!) and you are automatically promoted to Acting Ensign! The new Starfleet membership rates are: Individual - $5; Family of 2 - $9; Family of 3 - $12; Family of 4 - $14; Family of 5 - $16; and Family of 6 - $17. Paper membership certificates are no longer available – all memberships are now completely digital. However, if you wish a paper certificate it will cost you $3.00 for each one plus shipping. If you want a printed copy of the Starfleet handbook it will cost you $8.00 plus shipping. If you are not in Starfleet, please give some thought about joining this great organization!

TABULATIONS

The tab collection effort for 2018 is dragging pretty slowly this year. Last year at this time we had 103,309 tabs collected! Please start saving those little pieces of aluminum! Only a few folks have donated. With a nice donation from friends in CA Freddy has jumped ahead of Connie for second place. Jeff is still the top “tabber”. As always, the tabs can come off any type can from pop to cat food to dog food to soup! Ask your neighbors to save tabs for you; ask your church or other social group to save tabs. You will be surprised as to how many tabs you can collect that way. Here are the totals as of press time:

Starting Balance	0
Jeff Kirkland	8000
Freddy Heller	3742
Connie Heller	1917
Randy Dunn	346
Scott Roop	279
Joe Perry	48
Hal Stewart	35

DA VINCI T-SHIRTS

The new DaVinci t-shirts are in!! They are quite nice and I am sure they will go fast so make sure you reserve yours today. The cost is very reasonable: YM to L ($11); XL ($12), 2X ($13), 3X ($14), and 4X ($15). I did order (I hope) enough of each size and this time around some youth medium in each color. Oh, we still have a few of the older ones left and they can be purchased at a slight discount. Here is what the new ones look like:

Operations

Science

Engineering

Here is what we currently have in stock:

Operations (Red)		Science (Blue)		Engineering (Yellow)
Medium	2	Youth Medium	1	Youth Medium	1
Large	1	Small	1	Small	1

XL	4	Medium	2	Medium	5
2X	3	Large	3	Large	3
4X	1	2X	3	XL	1
				2X	2

We also have several of the older versions DaVinci shirts available for a discount – your choice $7.00 each. Here is what we have: Operations (1 - medium); Science (1 - medium); Engineering (1 - medium); Generic Gray (1 - medium and 2 – XL); and believe it or not we still have two previously worn of our first gray t-shirts (medium) in stock for $3.00 each. If you want any of the above t-shirts feel free to email or call me to reserve your size. I cannot hold it forever so if you reserve a shirt, please pay as soon as possible. Thanks.

Do not forget that Jeff knows a woman that goes to his church that will embroider a DaVinci logo on any t-shirt or polo for only a $10.00 fee. You have to supply the item in any color you wish. Bring me the item and the $10.00 and I will send them to Jeff who will then pass on the items to the embroiderer. Here is what the finished product will look like:

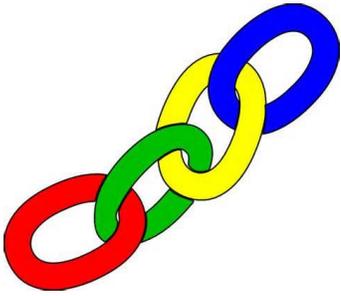

ACCOLADES

A BIG Bajoran thanks or congratulations go to:

Hal Stewart for his weekly donation of cans;

Jeff Kirkland for his donation of coupons and stamps; and,

Paul DeHart and Barbara Paul for taking even more and more and more and more Starfleet Academy courses!

USS DAVINCI IN PICTURES

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made the USS DaVinci what it is today. Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken. If I get a name wrong, please let me know! Okay, here is Part II of our October 2007 Night Out/Membership Meeting at Mi Casa Mexican Buffet:

Randy enjoys his food while a very young (and beardless) Jeff finishes his trip to the buffet.

A LITTLE HUMOR AND DISMISSED!

The 21st annual DaVinci participation in the 2018 Help-the-Hooch River clean-up will be held on 13 October. We will meet at the far end of Rigdon Park at 8:30 AM. Once we have cleaned up the Riverwalk and “The Hill”. We will adjourn to the Volunteer Party and Watershed Festival for hot dogs, chips, and pop at Woodruff Park (10th and Bay). If you wish to help, please let me know. Thanks to all!
