FROM THE CENTER SEAT

Greetings All!

The first thing I wish to remind all of you is to please check your expiration dates in the DaVinci and Starfleet. That information can be found later in the Pilot. If your expiration date is highlighted in black it means your membership is nearing expiration. If highlighted in red, your membership has expired. It may even say “Expired” under the Starfleet column. If your DaVinci membership is highlighted in red it means that you may not receive the next issue of the Pilot with all its fun-fill facts (you have 2 months from your expiration to renew) .If you do join or rejoin Starfleet PLEASE let me know. I may keep sending you reminders even though you may have renewed. It may upset you and will certainly embarrass me. Oh, as a reminder, remember the DaVinci membership discount for Starfleet members is no longer. With the new cost of a Starfleet membership being so inexpensive (cut in half in most cases) the reason for the discount is no longer an issue – that is, to help a family offset the cost of the Starfleet membership. Thanks.

Also, I get a lot of email from the crew asking where, when, and/or what time events are to take place. Folks, all that information can be found on the second page of the Pilot with more detailed information in my article. Also, I always send a reminder with all the pertinent information so please pay attention to those. If changes do occur – as they sometimes do – I will always send out the new information to the crew.

For those of you without email, you will be contacted by Todd Kes, our Communications Officer, so please check your voice mail. If you are not getting his messages it could be for any one of several reasons – your mail box may be full, you have recently changed your phone number, or for some reason a message was left but you are not getting it. What is important to remember is that you do receive the Pilot and know exactly when, where, and what time events are taking place so PLEASE let me or Todd know if you can or cannot make it. Todd should not have to make calls unless a change is necessary. Thanks.

Okay, enough of the grumbling and on to fun things! One of the films we watched at our fun-filled New Year’s Eve 50’s Sci-Fi marathon was “Creature from the Black Lagoon”. That film had two sequels “Revenge of the Creature” and “The Creature Walks Among Us.” For our first Pizza and a Movie Night of 2019 I decided to show “Revenge of the Creature”. We had our best turn-out as 10 DaVinci members gathered at my house on 10 January to watch the classic Universal film. Since it is called Pizza and a Movie the former was on the menu. There was 2 mushroom (El Fungi), two double pepperoni, and one double cheese pizzas. In addition Connie whipped up some scones (cherry, blueberry, and combination of both). Dutch brought a pumpkin pie and some apple pie Oreos and so there was no shortage of food for the attendees. We had a fun time and most folks were out the door by 8:15 PM. Check out the photos!

The January Pizza and a Movie film and Lisa and Connie watch and enjoy the pizza.

So too are Diane and Russell and Dutch, Steve, and Joe.

Sandra stops watching to pose for a photo and Todd and Freddy enjoy the pizza and film.

Russell feeds Diane some of the pumpkin pie and most of the crew (sorry Sandra, Todd, and Connie) at our 7th Pizza and a Movie Night!

Just a couple days later we had our annual turn-in of tabs to the Ronald McDonald House. A small group (just 9 of us) of die-hard DaVinci personnel met at Golden Corral at 9:00 AM for a delicious breakfast. For a change we were able to sit in the private room which made it more pleasant for conversation. Following the stuffing of our stomachs, we proceeded to drive to the Ronald McDonald House for the turn-in of the 35,000 tabs we collected last year. We were pretty much in and out in less than 10 minutes once the obligatory photos were taken. A BIG Bajoran thanks to all who came out.

As an early reminder, the Pie Party will take place at our 23rd anniversary party in March (date TBD). Enjoy the photos from all the fun.

Waiting for folks to arrive are Connie, Jeff, and Martha and Sandra, Lisa, and Steve.

Waiting to pay are Lisa, Sandra, Connie, and Jeff as well as Joe and Todd.

Martha and Jeff head for the room while Lisa helps herself to the buffet.

Also hitting the buffet line are Connie and Martha and Jeff.

Enjoying a delicious breakfast are Joe, Lisa, and Todd and Steve, Jeff, and Martha.

Sandra and Joe pose for a photo as too does Freddy and Connie (the folks in the back like it).

The DaVinci crew at Golden Corral and Steve and Connie set up the table at the Ronald McDonald House.

Next up on the agenda was our monthly Night Out and Membership meeting. We met at Country Road Buffet in the lower level of the Landings. This was our first visit to this restaurant and the 13 DaVinci members that attended were not disappointed. It was great to see Gregory (scooter and all), who attended his first DaVinci event in quite a while, as he was well enough following surgery on his foot. Randy and Sandye were also in attendance as was Scott who, unfortunately, had a change of his work schedule and may not be at anymore Night Outs but, in true DaVinci spirit, he asked his boss for the night off so he could attend. Talk about dedication!

After everyone had finished their meals, I presented Gregory with his door prize drawing of the year. His name was drawn from the hundred of tickets collected from all our 2018 events. He won an autographed copy of Nichelle Nichols' book Beyond Uhura. He was unable to attend the Christmas party due to his surgery. He was lucky that Sandra and Wilbert were unable to attend the Night Out or his book might just have not made it home with him!

I then announced that there would be no Captain's Perks this month but thanks to Dutch at the Space Science Center, I had a 2019 International Space Station calendars for all attendees. Yes, there were a couple of groans for the lack of a Captain's Perk but lots of oh and ahs when I passed out the calendars. Once that was finished it was time for the drawing for the free meal. I had Gregory do the honors and he drew Randy's name! Randy was kind enough to donate the $10.00 back to the DaVinci coffers.

Following all the drawings, I presented a couple of DaVinci Commendation Certificates to some worthy individuals. The first certificate was presented to Todd for his representing the DaVinci at the Valley Rescue Mission's Christmas Day feeding of the less fortunate and another certificate was presented to Russell for his organizing, hosting, and donating all the prizes for the "Ferengi Let's Make a Deal" game (a very big hit by the way) at our December Christmas party. Congratulations to both long-time DaVinci crew members!

After all the excitement died down, folks stayed around for a bit of dessert and conversation before heading out the door and home. Check out the photos below for all the excitement.

Waiting for more folks to arrive are Diane and Randy and Sandye and Joe.

Also waiting are Scott and Jeanne and Josh and Lisa.

Also anxious to hit the buffet line are Steve and Russell and Russell, Lisa, and Steve do just that!

Randy, Sandye, Jeanne, and Josh and Lisa at the buffet and Russell and Scott join them.

Jeanne and Josh at the buffet and Gregory and Freddy enjoy their meal.

Look what we won! Gregory finally receives his door prize of the year prize and Randy's name was drawn for the free meal!

The DaVinci crew at our January Night Out/Membership meeting at Country Road Buffet!

A BIG Bajoran thanks to Randy for his generosity, Scott for his donation of tans, and to Steve for his donation of coupons (sorted and counted!).

On a side note, before I arrived I went to Yelp just to see what folks thought of Country Roads. Most of the reviews were very negative which made me worry that we had chosen a bad location. Boy was I surprised at how good the food was. It was far from “tasteless” as some reviewers commented. The buffet was much smaller than that you would find at Golden Corral but because it is smaller the food is more down home and you cannot beat the price – less than $8.00 (sans the drink). I particularly loved the Salisbury steak, green beans, and the rice. On the dessert side, not so good was the peach cobbler but the banana pudding was not too bad. Other folks had their favorites as well to include fried and baked chicken, catfish, mashed potatoes, collard greens, and pinto beans.

I really thought more folks would be interested in seeing “The Wizard of Oz” on the big screen. Unfortunately there were only three of us attending (too bad because y’all missed a terrific film). Well, there is always next month and “My Fair Lady”.

Next month there are three events on the table. The first is our Night Out/Membership meeting at 6:30 PM on Monday, 18 February. We will be going to another new Night Out location, the IHOP on Airport Thruway. Next at 6:30 PM on Wednesday, 20 February is an away mission to see “My Fair Lady” at the AMC 13 Theaters. I hope the turn-out for this film is better than the one for “Wizard of Oz”. The month will come to a close on Sunday, 24 February with the Columbus Toy and Comic Book Show at the Coca-Cola Space Science Center. Due to some fantastic remodeling and new exhibits, the DaVinci may not have a membership drive table but Dutch as graciously arranged for a silent auction to take place in the Omnisphere Theater to benefit the USS DaVinci! All proceeds from the silent auction will be going into the DaVinci’s Latinum vault. Dutch will be asking vendors for donations so there should be a lot of great stuff for you to bid on. If you have anything you wish to donate to the auction get it to either Dutch or me. So be sure to attend the show and bid, bid, bid!

Until the next time - engage!

PASSAGES

William Morgan Sheppard sometimes credited as W. Morgan Sheppard, a British actor who played four characters throughout the Star Trek franchise has died. He was 86. He most recently played the head minister of the Vulcan Science Council in 2009's Star Trek for which he did not receive screen credit. He also played Ira Graves in the TNG episode “The Schizoid Man”, the Klingon Commander in “Star Trek VI: The Undiscovered Country”, and as Osaai in the Voyager episode “Bliss”.

As Ira Graves on TNG:
“The Schizoid Man”

As the Klingon Commander in “Star Trek VI:
The Undiscovered Country”

As Osaai on Voyager "Bliss"

As Vulcan Science Minister in Star Trek (2009)

Outside of Star Trek, Sheppard is perhaps best known for his role as Blank Reg on the television series Max Headroom, which starred fellow Star Trek: The Next Generation guest actor Matt Frewer in the title role. He is also known for his portrayal of Confederate General Isaac Trimble in the films "Gettysburg" and "Gods and Generals."

Born in London, England, and educated in Ireland, Sheppard graduated from London's Royal Academy of Dramatic Art in 1958. He then spent twelve years as Associate Artist with the Royal Shakespeare Company. He is the father of fellow Star Trek: Voyager guest actor Mark A. Sheppard, born in 1964.

In 1974, Sheppard appeared with future TNG co-star Patrick Stewart in a Royal Shakespeare Company production of Antony and Cleopatra. The production was video-taped and aired on US television in January 1975. Sheppard and Stewart worked together again on the films The Doctor and the Devils (1985) and Lady Jane (1986) before reuniting for the TNG episode "The Schizoid Man".

In addition to his Star Trek appearances, Sheppard portrayed two roles on the sci-fi series Babylon 5 and was a runner-up for the role of Ambassador G'Kar on the show, though the role eventually went to Andreas Katsulas. In addition, he had a recurring role as the holographic AI program known as "The Professor" on the series seaQuest DSV. Additionally, Sheppard was one of several Star Trek actors who voiced characters on the animated series Gargoyles. He voiced several characters on this show, including the father of Jonathan Frakes' character, David Xanatos.

In 2011, Sheppard appeared in Doctor Who, alongside his son who played a younger version of the same character. This places W. Morgan Sheppard and Mark Sheppard among the small number of actors who have appeared in both the Star Trek and Doctor Who franchises.

Sheppard died on 06 January, in a Los Angeles hospital, with his wife by his side.

Thanks to Memory Alpha for the information and photos.

TABULATIONS

Okay, so the year is starting out slow. Freddy is the top “tabber” so far with a whopping 166 tabs donated (thanks to folks at his church). I am sure that number will not hold up so...

Start saving tabs. We need to collect at least 45,700 tabs to hit 1.5 million total tabs collected! As always, the tabs can come off any type can from pop to cat food to dog food to soup! Ask your neighbors to save tabs for you; ask your church or other social group to save tabs. You will be surprised as to how many tabs you can collect that way. Here are the totals as of press time:

USS DAVINCI IN PICTURES

The following is a trip down the USS DaVinci memory lane. Each month I will show a series of photographs from our very beginning, as the Shuttle DaVinci, up until the present time. Many of you will remember these faces. To others they will be complete strangers. But, they made the USS DaVinci what it is today. Reminisce. If you have any photographs that you would like to see published in the Pilot, feel free to send them to me with a brief explanation as to who is in the photo and when and where it was taken. If I get a name wrong, please let me know! Okay, here is Part I of our November 2007 Night Out/Membership Meeting at Panera Bread Company.

Posing for a photo are Lech, James and Ariana, and Russell decides what to order.

Diane and Ariana enjoy their sandwiches.
